

IV. Ticket Validity Periods

33. A one-way ticket purchased at a ticket office for travelling in the railway line zones is valid within the line or lines and zones indicated on the ticket within the following periods:
 - 33.1. On the date of purchase of the ticket from the time of issuing the ticket until 24:00
 - 33.2. A ticket purchased after 21:00 - from the date and time of issuing the ticket until 4:00 o'clock of the next day
 - 33.3. A ticket purchased with a different date - from 00:00 to 24:00 on the date indicated on the ticket
34. A one-way ticket, if one of the stops is outside the zone's tariff operation, is valid on the date and at the time indicated on the ticket.
35. The validity periods of tickets purchased electronically on the official website of AS "Pasažieru vilciens" www.vivi.lv or via the "Vivi Latvija" mobile app are available on the website of Vivi <https://www.vivi.lv/lv/biletes/e-bilete/>. Information regarding the validity periods of tickets purchased electronically elsewhere is provided by the respective ticket sales service provider.
36. Timed (subscription) tickets are valid for the line and zone indicated, and passengers may use them only during the validity period indicated on the ticket.
37. If a domestic passenger train is unable to continue the journey due to technical damage or other reasons, the ticket sold to the passenger is valid without extra charge in other domestic passenger trains going towards the same destination station.
